October 6, 7, 8
Limited Space
REGISTER EARLY

$325 for all 3 days

Marjorie Glick, watercolor artist and instructor: “My teaching style is relaxed, comprehensive and eclectic with an emphasis on using color expressively in either wet or transparent layers. I will assist students in further developing their own artistic voice.”

- Work on subjects of your own choosing at your own pace
- Learn the difference between “looking” and “seeing”
- Develop strategies for cohesive color mixing and layering saturated color
- Achieve vibrant, luminous color
- Create a conscious color chord for your paintings
- Explore advanced techniques to use the “water” part of watercolor to create depth, light and shadow
- Expand what you know through individual mentoring
